The latest addition to the list of cadets at the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich is Raj Kumar Ranjan Ralhanbari, the Prince Muzaffar of Madras, son of the late Prince of Mysore, at the request of the Mysore Office. This young cadet's grandfather was the husband of at least two successive Queens of Madagascar.

On Friday afternoon (11th) Alfred de Guedin, a young Belgian, shot in India staying with his wife at a Hotel in New Delhi, in Leicestershire, and afterwards committed suicide by shooting himself. Last night the body was lying in a precarious condition at the Charing Cross Hospital.

A strong impetus should be given to the revival of "rinking" by the provision of such an unrivaled asse for the pastime of roller skating as will be presently supplied on the streets of Olympia. Three acres we hear, have been leased, and three hundred hard-surfaced paths planned to invite the public to the pleasure of Versailles. The Olympian Club, it is announced, will have no fewer than fifty professional assistants and tutors. There are to be 10,000 pairs of skates provided. During the opening week—April 21st to 26th inclusive—the companion skaters Mr. J. Aginston, Mr. H. A. Shewell, and Mr. Frank Delmont are to be present, and the Hon. Artillery Company Band will attend.

A human form has been discovered at Pompeii under a doorway, which clearly shows the sandals on the foot, and what is extremely uncommon in such remains, a pair of trousers. A Map of archaeological purposes it to be one of the ancient colony stations at Pompeii during the period of its destruction. It is evident that the man was flying with a bundle, and fell suffocated.

The Russian Imperial family are at present considering what route should be chosen for the sea voyage which the Czarowitch and his brother, the Grand Duke George Alexandrovitch will undertake in the course of the present year. A Novgorod's telegram from St. Petersburg says it is decided whether they will make a simple cruise in Europe or whether they will make a voyage direct to Victoria and thence a more extended journey, with stoppages at different ports on the Indian coast. The two Grand Dukes will probably start in the autumn.

Since the second reading of the Infectious Diseases (Prevention) Bill, vigorous action has been taken by the Metropolitan Dairyman's Society with the object of arresting its further progress. The Society contains several provisions of considerable importance, and the statement dealing with the objectionable features was drawn up and offered to be sent to each of the metropolitan members of Parliament so that their most strenuous opposition to the Bill as at present drawn. Copies have also been sent to provincial dairy societies and various representations have been made with the same view. The Bill is to be read a third time on the 21st instant, and a deputation from the society is expected to call upon some of the Radical representatives of the working classes.

Lloyd's agent at Gibralter has telegraphed on Saturday morning reports that the steamer "Unshio" bound to Natal has gone ashore and has become a wreck. Crew and passengers saved, part of the cargo may be saved. The "Unshio" was a new steamer of 1,775 tons gross, built at Sunderland in 1880, and owned by Messrs. Bullock & King Co., and left London on the 12th.

Three women were killed and shockingly mangled on the railway near Lowestoft last night. They were walking along the Norwich line with two other women, when they saw a London train approaching in the same direction that in which they were going. Owing to the darkness they ran upon the truck of the train in mistake, and three of them were killed instantaneously. The others, however, managed to walk well past the line. The women were returning to Lowestoft from the next station, where they had been to see a friend leave for Norway.

Mr. Chidlow, M.P., and Mr. Childs arrived in town last evening from India. Their tour embraced among other points of interest the Khyber Pass, Quetta, and Cabul. Mr. Chidlow states that the fortifications of Quetta are in a very bad state, and that the garrison has formed a high opinion of the resources of India, and the capacity of its vast native population.

The corporation of the Trinity House have decided to build an additional lighthouse on the Yorkshire coast between Flamborough Head and Spurn Point, and the site selected is near the village of Filey.

Two men who have just returned to Calcutta from Oudh are now Kharostan, which has been the seat of Mahidun since the siege and fall of the latter place, state that they met with no difficulties on the road thence, the route from Kharostan to Domohra being perfectly open. They add that the Mahdi has vanished, and that famine is raging throughout the whole of the Soudan. They declare that Mahidun is becoming extinct.
